INTERNATIONAL TRANSPORT AND LOGISTICS EXHIBITION 2027 (SITL)

Time For Choices

SITL returns with “Trajectories 2030”

The transport and logistics sector faces critical choices.

Paris Expo Porte de Versailles, Hall 1, 23–25 March 2027

With annual revenue of €267 billion and 1.8 million employees, the transport and logistics sector plays a central role in the French economy. As technological, environmental and geopolitical changes accelerate, the sector faces increasingly critical choices: prioritising investments, adapting operating models and strengthening cooperation between public and private stakeholders.

In the business of building businesses

Following “Metamorphosis”, SITL 2027 launches “Trajectories 2030”, a new cycle focused on the critical choices facing the sector and built around closer dialogue between public and private stakeholders. Discussions will explore AI and the transformation of logistics, decarbonisation and the transport transition, multimodality, European cooperation, and supply chain resilience and adaptation. Attracting talent to the sector and enhancing the appeal of local areas will also be cross-cutting themes.

SITL 2027: KEY ISSUES SHAPING THE DISCUSSIONS

- How can AI, data and automation transform day-to-day operations?
- What investments and partnerships will accelerate the environmental transition and the development of multimodal transport?
- How can we safeguard flows and adapt supply chains in times of crisis?
- How can we strengthen cooperation between public and private stakeholders and make careers in the sector more attractive?

These questions will shape discussions over the three days, bringing together businesses, institutions, local authorities and solution providers to explore the sector’s transformation.
The 2027 edition will also introduce several new features, with new events, content and discussion formats to be unveiled in the coming weeks.
