SITL SHIFTS TO MAY 2021

Paris, Monday December 14, 2020 -

Faced with the current health crisis linked to the COVID 19 epidemic, Reed Expositions France has decided as a precautionary measure by anticipation to postpone the dates of SITL 2021, to be held initially from April 13 to 15,

Therefore, we will have the pleasure to meet with our customers, partners and visitors, from May 18th to 20th, 2021, at Paris Porte de Versailles, Pavilion 1 for the 38th edition of Transport and Logistics Innovation Week.

« We wanted get some distance from the health emergency state period to reassure our entire community. Shifting SITL 2021 to May seemed essential to us in order to offer the best showcase possible for Transport, Logistics and Supply Chain market. » explains Alain Bagnaud, Managing Director of the Sport, Tourism, Transport and Logistics Department.

« Positioning SITL 2021 in May is a good decision hailed by our market. In addition, maintaining SITL in Pavilion 1 will allow exhibitors to postpone their participation without any impact with a few additional weeks to be best prepared for this long-awaited meeting by all the professionals. » says Thomas Desplanques, Director of Sport, Transport and Logistics Divisions.
